Maria: Thomas, this is my father, Paul. Dad, this is Thomas.

Thomas: Nice to meet you.

Paul: Nice to meet you too.

Maria: Where's mum?

Paul: Your mother's in the bathroom and your brothers are at school.

Maria: Are uncle Marc and aunt Christina coming?

Paul: Yes, but your grandmother can't come. Thomas, how's your family?

Thomas: Very well, thanks.

*****

Maria: Thomas, ini adalah ayah saya, Paulus. Ayah, ini adalah Thomas.

Thomas: Nice to meet you.

Paul: Nice to meet you too.

Maria: Dimana ibu?

Paul: Ibumu ada di kamar mandi dan saudara Anda berada di sekolah.

Maria: Apakah paman dan bibi Marc Christina datang?

Paulus: Ya, tapi nenekmu tidak bisa datang. Thomas, bagaimana keluarga Anda?

Thomas: Sangat baik, terima kasih.

Ask one student to read aloud the conversation. Give the students time to write down the both part of conversation in their notebooks. Remove the Indonesian version from the whiteboard and write the following question instead.

Review and practice (10 min)

Divide the students into three groups. Ask each group to set the cards in the correct position to make the Indonesian words which you wrote on the whiteboard.

The words are as following:

Group one: (yellow cards) gadis - saudara perempuan

si gi er st e rl e th th

Group two: (red cards) saudara laki-laki – putra

her th n br e so ot e th

Ask the third group to make two sentences with their cards:

have any don't sisters. I He has many brother.

And also form sentences with following meaning by using the blue cards.

Sepupu saya memiliki seorang anak perempuan.

Nama pacarnya adalah Marc.

is name boyfriend's a her cousin has daughter My Marc.

Draw the following chart on the whiteboard and ask the students to copy it in their notebooks. Then ask them to connect the words from the left side to their correct translation on the right side. Check them individually and help them to understand it.

Connect the words from the left side to their correct translation on the right side

The mother		paman
To be married		putra
The uncle		nenek
The son		untuk menikah
The grandmother		ibu
The daughter	Berapa banyak saudara dan saudari yang Anda miliki?
